
Robert M. Griffin, Jr.

Assistant Commander for Acquisition Naval Facilities Engineering Command

Mr. Griffin has more than 31 years of public service and was selected to the Navy's Senior Executive Service in July of 2000. He is the Command's Senior Civilian Contracting Official responsible for the contractual business practices, policy and oversight for the Command's $12 billion contract program. Mr. Griffin manages a contracting workforce consisting of more than 1,200 contract specialists world wide.

During FY11, Mr. Griffin chaired the "Promote Competition" team in support of Dr. Ashton Carter's (DUSD AT&L) "Better Buying Power" efficiency initiatives.

Prior to assuming the role as the Director of Acquisition, Mr. Griffin served as the Director of Public Private Venture Programs at NAVFACENGCOM from March 1998 to December 2000, Director of the Contracts Management Division at NAVFACENGCOM from November 1990 to October 1997 and Director of the Environmental/Service Contracts Division at the Western Division of NAVFACENGCOM from May 1989 to October 1990.

Mr. Griffin is a graduate of George Mason University, Fairfax, Virginia, with a bachelor's of science degree in business administration. His awards include the President's Meritorious Executive Service Award (2004), Department of the Navy Superior Civilian Service Award (1998) and the Meritorious Civilian Service Award (1996).